

GBAR Cancellation Policy

An official email must be sent to gbareducation@gbreb.com at least one week (7 days) before the start of a program in order to receive a refund. If you do not receive a confirmation email in return, your program cancellation has not been processed.

- No refunds will be issued when a request has been received seven (7) or fewer days before the scheduled day of the class.
- No refund or credit will be given if the request is received on the day of the class or after the class has been offered.

Clicking the CANCEL button linked through GoToWebinar is not considered an official program cancellation and a refund will not be processed.
