Who We Are

MAA (Formerly RHA) represents owners and managers of 175,000+ units across Massachusetts, and provides education, networking, and events to benefit our members careers, businesses and connections.

Our members represent every facet of the industry: Apartment Owners, Property Managers, Condominium Managers, Subsidized Housing Owners, Developers of Rental and Condominium properties, Realtors, Brokers, Rental Agents, and Service Providers (Supplier Members).

Mission

To promote rental housing by advocating, educating and collaborating for the betterment of the industry, our members and the communities we serve.

“Joining MAA is one of the best decisions ARS has made...ARS has been able to build valuable relationships, both personally and professionally, which have helped grow our business and have made us leaders in the industry. In our experience in working with MAA, we’ve found that what you are willing to put in, you receive back two fold. The knowledge we’ve gained and the lessons we’ve learned through working with MAA have been invaluable to our success.”

Benefits of Membership

Networking & Events: Connect with peers at industry events. MAA hosts over 30 events per year including Red Sox outings, golf outings, networking nights, the annual summer cookout at Gillette Stadium, Maintenance Mania, and more.

MAA Fall Conference & Expo: Join over 1000 attendees at MAA’s tradeshow and expo: keynote sessions, 125+ booths, networking events, and more make this an annual event not to miss!

Committee Participation: Join one of our Committees to build relationships, help promote MAA, and assist in planning MAA programs and events. Join the thriving MAA NextGen Committee, which works to cultivate and strengthen the future leaders of the rental housing industry.

President’s Awards: MAA’s premier social engagement of the year. Awards are presented in the areas of both industry excellence and public service.

Advocacy: MAA and the Greater Boston Real Estate Board represent your business’ interest on local, state and federal levels.

Education and Training: Further your professional development and receive a designation by taking NAAEI Designation courses. Participate in other programs focusing on industry issues, laws and regulations, and new topics and trends in the rental housing industry.

Publications: Receive members only publications & newsletters, such as the MAA Insider newsletter, Lapatin on the Law, and Bay State Apartment Owner e-magazine.

National Apartment Association (NAA): As an MAA member, you also receive an NAA membership – two memberships for one! Includes several industry resources such as the Click & Lease Program, Open Door Program, NAA Education Institute and more! To learn more about NAA, visit www.naaHQ.org.

Legal Counseling Hotline: Helps members avoid costly mistakes and better manage the legal risks that are inherent in real estate business practice.
